I unzip the setup folder and run the Uninstall.exe file to remove the tool from my computer, then I try to reinstall it again but nothing happens. I tried to remove all the registry entry by deleting the following: HKCU\Software\IVL\IVL Files Pro\Engine\Win32\Uninstall_Win32 0x0 HKCU\Software\IVL\IVL Files Pro\Engine\Win32\Uninstall_64 0x0 HKCU\Software\IVL\IVL Files Pro\Uninstall 0x0 I tried to install it, but nothing happens. There's a error pop-up with a message An error occurred when attempting to extract the installer payload from the installer package. I tried everything but nothing work, so I came to your forum to help me to resolve this problem. I tried to run the executable in the executable command instead to check if it's a virus or what the problem is? A: As mentioned in my comment, your key appears to be corrupted (although it may be worth checking if it's the original one). But why are you trying to reinstall it with the.uninstall.exe file? If you need an uninstaller, just right-click the executable, select "Uninstall/Modify...", and delete the line containing the key: HKCU\Software\IVL\IVL Files Pro\Engine\Win32\Uninstall_Win32 0x0 There is a warning about the executable: This process will delete the Windows registry key "HKCU\Software\IVL\IVL Files Pro\Engine\Win32\Uninstall_Win32" 1.
